Cities and projects

- 1 European high speed railnetwork, setting conditions for a bigger amount and more differentiation of cultural programs and facilities (Valladolid)
- 2 Road system as an object of strategic urban planning and urban design. Towards designing networks instead of places (Munich)
- 3 Should'nt we formulate the idea of a common European city culture ? A citizen oriented policy, stressing liberal and humanistic values. (Zaragoza)
- 4 The importance of cultural programs (parallel to physical interventions) which give meaning/identity to the existing and new urban fabric. Is city planning becoming less physical ? (North Rhine Westphalia)
